

Resilience in the Centre

Tuesday 3 October 2006

@ Centralian Senior Secondary College Theatre
Grevillea Drive, Alice Springs

4.30pm - 6.30pm

FREE
Community
Forum

To promote community discussion of resilience – why it is important in our community &
why it is important to mental health ...

Forum Panel Members:

- ◆ Anne Deveson AO: author of Resilience and Tell Me I'm Here, her stories of coping with the life and death of her son who had schizophrenia
 - ◆ Fran Kilgariff: Mayor, Alice Springs
- ◆ Stephen Elsom: President, ANZCMHN
 - ◆ Vicki Stanton: Manager
Central Australia Mental Health Service
- ◆ Claudia Manu-Preston: Manager
Mental Health Association of Central Australia
- ◆ Gwen Wally: Community Capacity Building Team, Alcohol & Drug Service
- ◆ Fiona Haddon: Social Emotional Wellbeing
- ◆ Liz Archer: Waltja Reconnect Program

Special guest:
Anne Deveson, author of Resilience

"Resilience is about facing adversity with hope. We inhabit one world in which we are all deeply connected. I hope for the wisdom and justice which will bring us peace." Anne Deveson

An enterprise of the 32nd Annual Conference of the Australian and New Zealand College of Mental Health Nurses, supported by the Central Australia Mental Health Services and the Mental Health Association of Central Australia

For enquiries or to RSVP phone
Jan at CAMHS on 8951 7710

Northern Territory Government Department of Health and Community Services

